

THE Rio Rotarian

HELENE MADERE BRIDGE

"Having fun helping others...watering the rosebuds"

—Dr. Ted Schulz

Welcome

President Dan gives his used cheap Lion's gavel to Kiara who opens the meeting by hitting the podium with a loud thud. Ed. Dick leads us in the Pledge and Dr. Ted leads us in Rotary Grace. Then, to honor Jimmy Mac, Ted requests Jim lead us in the song he does best, "The Rio Vista High Fight Song." The students join in strongly and with great enthusiasm.

Guest Rotarian

Ted welcomes back Jimmy Mac after his recent illness in which he was hospitalized. We are all happy to see his smiling face again.

Presenting CAMP ROYAL 2017

The RVHS Interact Club presented the new 2017 Camp Royal video and then talked about their personal experiences at camp last year. If you missed the video or would like to watch it again, the link is: <https://vimeo.com/241834385>. While the students were setting up, Cub entertained us with a parrot joke. So. this guy goes into Walt's pet store and wants a pet. Walt talked him into buying a parrot who came from a good home. When the guy got the parrot home, it turned out to be very mean and vulgar, swearing at all of his dinner guests. To punish the parrot the guy throws the parrot into the freezer. He removes the parrot 6 hours later, and the parrot apologizes, saying, "I will never be a bad parrot again, but let me ask you, just what did the turkey do?"
